What people are saying about this best seller...

"The only tables I will buy in the future! I have purchased 3 of the Hands Free models for my practice over the past couple years. The fact that you can raise and lower the table while standing anywhere around it is a big deal when your hands are always on the client. I have less fatigue, my back pain is gone and my clients comment on how professional they are! I also love it for its convenience for the elderly and those with accessibility concerns. BEST tables you can buy!"

FMST Tools

Fluid Motion Soft Tissue Tools

Most massage therapists work by themselves either in a mobile setting, private office, fitness centers, chiropractic offices, hospitals or spas. The biggest concern in the profession is wear and tear on the therapist's body. Manual techniques many times put the therapist in an awkward position to perform work on an area of the patient. The Fluid Motion Soft Tissue Tools have been designed to increase efficiency for the practitioner and the massage therapy business. Many therapists are trained and would rather use their hands, but the FMST Tools can also be helpful for the massage therapist to achieve great results by identifying primary tissue restrictions and decreasing wear and tear on the hands and body of the therapist.

Ambidextrous design and multiple edges for all areas of the body.

AURA UPHOLSTERY CHOICES:

Chocolate | Otter | Charcoal

The best thing about this table are some of the features that it has. I'm an older massage therapist, so anything to help me with my lower body mechanics, helps me to continue working as pain free as possible. This is a huge goal for me.

This table can be lowered and it can be raised - so if I push down on it, it goes up. I can access that bar from anywhere around the table. I don't have to be in a specific location to do that. This table is great - it can lower all the way down, so accessibility from a wheelchair is a real plus for people who can't get on it from a certain height - I can match the height that they need. Thanks for being a great company to purchase from!

A Custom Moment

Rachel Romanelli
Owner, Worker B Wellness

I have been in the massage therapy profession since 1995, and I've used Custom Craftworks since I was a student – that's over 2 decades of using Custom Craftworks tables, bolsters and chairs.

I really appreciate Custom Craftworks in the fact that they've really grown up with our profession and have changed designs to accommodate customers so that they can be comfortable and so practitioners can deliver the best possible service they can. Patients are very impressed with the ability of the table to raise and lower. Having a table that is designed with care in mind makes them feel like they have come to the right place because we have invested in massage equipment that will take care of them.
